TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.
Louis, "the future great City of the world."

This line, the
ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-WAY,

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis of the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BAR-RETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 243, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

An Explanation.

In a recent article upon the Hon. C. R. Thomas, Representative in Congress from the Third District, we used the following language:

His career in Congress has won for him a reputation not surpassed by any member from the South. While the interests of the entire country are carefully watched by him, the wants of his particular section are jealously attended to. He is known to be the representative of the elements which alone must lead to the prosperity of the South; not a political adventurer, or an exponent of that solitary pride which is so rampant in this section, and which would involve all in ruin rather than be ruled by others.

The last sentence has been somewhat misunderstood by some of our friends, consequently we will explain what we meant.

"The elements which alone must lead to the prosperity of the South," are the principles and professions of the Republican organization. The new governments which have arisen in this section of the country were originated under Republican rule; they were put into operation under the auspices of the Republican party, and they must, to be efficacious for good, be administered by men who hold the principles which have been the distinction and glory of their founders. A surrender of these governments to their enemies—men who deny their lawful existence—is to jeopardize the objects for which they were instituted. It is to the elements or principles of the Republicans, who are the friends and supporters of these governments, that they must be confided; otherwise the work of the war, and of the peace since the war, will have to be done over. True Republicans in the South have had many obstacles to contend with during the past five years, but they fought over the ground with earnestness and zeal, and their labor is being rewarded by seeing the spread of their principles, which is going on daily.

Political adventurers have in all ages and in all countries the bane of political parties. In despotisms they attach themselves to the monarch, and to their influence and counsel are frequently due the disorders which arise under those governments. In a free State they are the parasites of power as elsewhere, and a successful party becomes odious to the people through their agency. The Republican party has not been exempt from their contamination, and adventurers of all classes and conditions have been by that party as well as others elevated to power to prey upon the people. Without principle, these adventurers only consulted their short sighted selfishness; and their ruin always followed. Their elimination from the Republican party has ever been swift when discovered, and their exclusion afterwards profound, unless they were adopted by the Democracy.

"The solitary pride which is so rampant in this section, and which would involve all in ruin, rather than be ruled by others," finds its exponents in that party, who endeavored to accomplish the ruin of the country rather than see it governed by a Republican administration. And their own disaster which followed closed upon their crime has not taught them a lesson. That spirit of isolation which still survives in their bosoms is as strong to-day as when they attempted to cut themselves off from the sympathy of the civilized world by founding a government whose cornerstone was human slavery. In the neighboring State of South Carolina, that "solitary pride" has refused to avail itself of laws passed by the United States government because those laws were administered by Judges whom it did not like; or perhaps, a better reason can be found, that it preferred to set itself up as a martyr for the gaze of the American people.

We must add that our friends have exhibited a sensitiveness that we cannot well account for. Surely there was nothing in our article that referred to any particular individuals, but only to a class.

The proprietor of Swift's rolling mills, at Newport, Ky., telegraphed to Governor Leslie, of Kentucky, on the 27th ult., for protection to enable him to resume work at his rolling mills. Also, to the Secretary of War for a detachment of soldiers from Newport barracks to guard the boats he is constructing for the government.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

The Secretary of the Treasury has General Thomas Hillhouse, Assistant Treasurer at New York, to sell $3,000,000 gold for the month of March, as follows: On the first and third Thursdays each, $1,000,000; and on the second and fourth Thursdays each, $500,000.

The trial of the prisoners engaged in the Colfax massacre, in April last, is progressing. The testimony against the parties charged is fearfully conclusive. The evidence develops terribly revolting cruelty, scarcely paralleled in the annals of cruelty. It is believed that nearly, if not all, the prisoners will be convicted.

Some years ago, Upper Egypt had only some five or six rainy days in the course of a year; but the Pasha planted millions of trees, and the annual average is now forty-six days of rain, by which the country has been incalculably benefited. The country about Trieste has been made a pretty thorough test, too. Once it was fertile; but the forests were swept away, and barrenness soon followed. Since then, however, millions of olive trees have been planted and carefully reared, and now productivity has returned.

A fearful accident occurred on the Great Western railway Saturday night. The Sarnia accommodation train left London at 6:30 p. m., and consisted of empty tank cars, a baggage and a second class car and a coach. When seven miles west of London the coach took fire, it is supposed by a falling lamp. The fire was not discovered until the interior of the saloon was completely filled with flames, which spread through the coach almost instantly. The passengers were compelled to jump from the rear platform and through the windows. The train was stopped as quickly as possible, but before they could be extricated eight persons were fatally suffocated and burned.

THE RAILROAD SIGN—IT DIDN'T WORK WELL ON THE NORTH CAROLINA ROAD.—We won't say whether it was the genial good natured Waitt, or the faithful Spraggins, or the gentlemanly whole souled Smith, or the lightning conductor Ligon, who was a participant in the following railroad comedy:—A plain farmer, who never went about cities much, and had never taken a ride on the cars, got tired farming and took an agency for an insurance company. He was engaged in it a few months, when he met a certain wag of a fellow, who asked him, how he was getting on. He said he was doing very well, but could do better, if it wasn't for paying on the railroads. "Why," said the wag, "what do you pay for?" Said the fellow, "how can I help it?" "Easy enough," replied the wag, "if you will pay me five dollars, I'll give you the railroad sign, and you can travel free on every railroad in the south." "All right," said the fellow, and he cheerfully forked over the V. The wag told him, where he was on the cars, and the conductor bummed around, shouting, "Tickets," that when he got to him, just to point his finger over his left shoulder, and hollow out, "all right," and that was all he had to do. "The fellow said he would be sure to do it, that he was going up to Greensboro, that night, and would certainly 'give 'em the sign.'"

The wag then saw the conductor and told him about it, and told him to let the fellow pass—that he would pay for it himself. Sure enough the fellow was on that trip, and the conductor, called out to him, "ticket, sir; ticket!" and he stuck his finger over his left shoulder and sung out, "all right!" as independent as a wood-sawyer. The conductor passed on but the next night the fellow took the cars to return, and there was another conductor. This time he actually occupied two seats, and had his legs stretched out as big as life. It was late at night, and the conductor looked mad and sleepy as he came in the door and shouted out, "tickets!" The insurance man actually smiled as he saw the passenger "handing them in." The conductor came to him. "Ticket, sir; ticket, show your ticket." The fellow quickly ran his fore-finger over his left shoulder and bowed and smiled, as he cried, "all right, captain; all right." "I say, sir! none of your foolishness! show your ticket!" said the conductor. "All right," shouted the fellow—could he hear him all over the car—and his finger pointed straight out over his left shoulder. The conductor put his hand on the bell-rope, and told him either to show his ticket or pay his fare, or he would put him off that train, remarking that he must be crazy or drunk.

This meant business, and so he had to shuck out the money from Greensboro to Raleigh. But he went right straight to see the wag, and told him the thing worked like a charm, going up the road, but coming back he like to have been put off the train, and was made to pay the money. "Which shoulder?" asked the wag. The fellow said he pointed over the left, the same he did, going up. "Ha, ha," said the wag, "its your own fault; always, coming back, point over the right shoulder, that was what the matter." But the insurance man thinks he'd rather lose the five dollars, than try either of his "shoulders" with that conductor, again.

KEEPING LENT.

BY ORPHEUS C. KERR.

"I'd keep Lent ALWAYS," sighed a ritual dandy, With languid air, unto a coxcomb near her. "I'll tell you how you know, then; loveliest 'm'am sell'— Began the swell—but paused to further hear her. "I'd keep Lent always," she declared again. "If knowing how to change my nature to it."

To make my spirit spurn all joy for pain; Oh, tell me, my Augustus, how to do it!"

"Well, y-a-s, I'll tell you," drawled the sumptuous dandy, Resolved to show her what unflinching nerve! "You can't be only giving up French candy, And going twice a day to sacred service; More change than that, you'll find, it will require."

For you to keep Lent always, MIA BELLA; You'll have to change, in fact, for your desire, Into a much-prized book, or choice umbrella!"

Notwithstanding hard times, Goldsboro' contemplates many improvements the coming summer.

Mrs. STROCK has the bird kites for the little ones.

FOR RENT.—A kitchen, stable and shed, suitable for a drayman. Apply at this office.

PREPARATIONS are being made for the paving of the sidewalk on the West side of Second between Market and Princess streets.

OUT.—We were pleased to see Capt. George Morrison out on the streets this morning. The Captain is on his crutches, and handles them remarkably well.

IMPROVING.—Mr. Joseph Mier, who had his leg broken at a recent fire, has so far recovered as to be able to walk about his house with the aid of crutches.

CLOTHING is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

READ J. A. Mcbane, Agent, advertisement. Mr. Mcbane is constantly adding to his stock and has a fine assortment of fresh drugs to dispose of at reasonable prices.

LAST evening a drunken virago assailed a colored man who knocked her down. The woman was in a speechless condition all night, but has been able to make her tongue perform its functions this morning.

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

TAKE WARNING.—This morning the Mayor fined a driver $20 and costs for fast driving through the streets, and charged the police to arrest every person caught violating the city ordinance relative to the speed of horses through the streets.

RUN AWAY.—Last night an attempt was made to burglarize the dwelling of Mr. Samuel Scarborough. Mrs. Scarborough hearing a noise at the parlor window, looked from her bedroom and saw a man in the act of getting in. She gave an alarm, and several neighbors came to her assistance in time to see a couple of men running off.

OF MUCH IMPORTANCE.—Do not forget the Railroad meeting at the Court House this evening at 7 o'clock. The success of the enterprise is of much importance to the citizens of Wilmington, as its growth and prosperity is chiefly owing to its own exertions, and unless the citizens of Wilmington endeavor to make improvements and establish factories, railroads, etc., they can never expect the city to extend beyond its present limits. Let the road be built, and factories established at the earliest practicable opportunity.

Geo. Chavis, fast driving, fined $20 and costs.

The cases of disorderly conduct were continued until to-morrow.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT AT INCENDIARISM.—Last night an attempt to fire the store of Mr. H. H. Bloom, corner of Chestnut and Fifth streets, was made by some villain, and as a portion of the building had been saturated with kerosene oil, and saturated rags placed under the store, immediately under a thirty-gallon kerosene oil can; it is supposed that the scoundrel was frightened off before fire could be set to the rags. The state of affairs was discovered this morning by Mr. Bloom, who reported them to the Mayor and Aldermen.

THE TOWN CRIER.

SHADOWS EVERYWHERE.
In every home some skeleton does lie,
In every heart some longing voice does cry, That only God may know—praise to Him be That this is so—that all earth may not see The longing, hoping, fearing of us all, But covers us in thought as with a pall.

And down we sit and think o'er some sweet dream,
And I lest some happy heart should catch the beam, Of joy from out souls—we close our eyes
And so think on, and on, 'e'en to the skies;
So live in happy dreamland by the hour, Unconscious in that no one hath the power.

To read, to know, why, or when, or where We've been, oh! blessed gift, that from the world of care We all may wander and but God alone May hear love laugh, or hear the pain Thoughts morn
For thoughts are silent, sacred, fond and deep,
And even when we slumber, do not sleep.

Blessed be God again, dreams are not sin, Despite all laws and forms, they gather in Our sleeping hearts, and oh! such happy pain That when we wake we dream them o'er again,
And rest our weary souls in thankfulness, That even in our sleep our lives are blessed.

That happy things that in the daylight's glare Would never come. Come then, oh! sweet and rare, And blessed beyond compare, that there are days When from the world, and all its troublous ways, We live apart, and for the time pass o'er,
And live in hopes to come—or gone before.

WILMINGTON, N. C., 23rd February, 1874.

COL. WM. L. DEROSSET,
President of Chamber of Commerce.

SIR: In compliance with a resolution of the Chamber, of the 14th of January, I proceeded to Washington City in the interest of our harbor improvements, leaving here on the 22d ultimo, in the company of Gen. J. C. Abbott, who had been appointed by the city authorities to co-operate with me.

On our arrival at Washington on the 23rd, we were met by Gen. Allan Rutherford, who had also been appointed by the city authorities, likewise by Colonel Waddell, Gen. Ransom, Judge Merrimon, and other members of the North Carolina delegation in Congress. After consultation, a few days were spent in collecting information relative to the situation of affairs. In the meantime, I visited Baltimore for a conference with Col. Craighill on the subject.

We found that the original recommendation of $150,000 for this work by the Chief of Engineers, had been subjected to a scale of one-third, reducing the amount to $100,000 under an order of the War Department to reduce the general appropriation bill for rivers and harbors to an amount not exceeding $50,000; and again, this amount was subjected to another scale of one-half or more, reducing the amount to $50,000 or less by the committee on Commerce, who were desirous of satisfying the popular sentiment, which was clamorous for curtailment in all the departments of the Government.

Under such circumstances, we found it impracticable to urge an increase of the amount determined upon by the committee, upon the basis of an ordinary routine appropriation, and therefore determined to place our claim upon higher ground, asking for a sum sufficient to close the New Ingh, which the emergency of our situation seemed to justify.

This determination, we were pleased to find, was promptly and ably sustained by various memorials, comprising our entire commercial interest, which memorials were duly presented to the Senate by Senator Merrimon, (Senator Ransom being absent at that moment,) ordered printed, and referred to the committee on Commerce.

By special appointment, the committee favored us with an audience on the 11th inst., Generals Abbott and Rutherford being present; also, Senator Ransom, and Representatives Waddell and Cobb.

Our remarks on the occasion were submitted in writing, (a duplicate is herewith transmitted,) the reading of which was patiently and attentively received. While no utterance of intention was made, much interest and kindly feeling was manifested, and we have reason for believing that at the proper time due consideration will be given our appeal, and all will be done for us that the merits of the case, tempered with prudence, may seem to justify.

It affords me pleasure to report the active seal taken in the matter by our immediate representative, Mr. Waddell, also Messrs. Ashe and Cobb, Senators Ransom and Merrimon. In fact, our entire delegation have manifested a lively interest in the success of this great national work, besides whom many members of both houses of Congress from other States have expressed sympathy in our cause, and kind wishes for our perfect success.

Generals Abbott and Rutherford have not been idle in calling the attention of prominent individuals to the subject and explaining it.

We have done what seemed necessary and proper for us to do, and are pleased to know that the matter now rests in the hands of such zealous friends and able advocates as our present representatives in Congress.

Respectfully,
H. NUTT.

The employees in the Erie shops at Susquehanna depot struck at 9:30 a. m., yesterday. The alleged reasons for the strike are that new regulations had been introduced, many of the best and oldest workmen discharged without any assigned cause, wages cut down and paid when it suited the company, having been for the last four months kept two months in arrears, passes restricted and a few utterly unskilled in the trade placed to work on the same wages as skilled mechanics.

The miners who have been for the last two months fighting fire at the Empire mine near this city, have ceased work, having become convinced that their efforts to control the fiery element were becoming more hazardous and unavailing each day. Subsequent events proved that the apprehensions were not unfounded, for last evening a most extensive "cave in" of the mine occurred, exceeding in extent the fall at the Baltimore mine which took place a short time since. Great consternation prevails in the neighborhood of the mine, and families are preparing to leave the dangerous proximity. The fire now has free scope, and threatens to ruin utterly one of the most valuable possessions of the newly formed Wilkesbarre and Lehigh Coal Company.

The Statesville American says of the late unfortunate homicide in that town: "To remove any false impression or report that may have gained circulation, as to the cause of the late homicide in this place, we deem it proper to state that politics had no part in the unfortunate affair. Both young men were under legal age, and both were of the Conservative or Democratic persuasion, as we are informed. We are likewise informed that the deceased had no weapons upon or about his person when he was killed, nor even a pocket-knife."

EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN
EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at

Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,
up to the time of going to press, TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL
AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE.

its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the Post is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however, an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it despises a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE Post.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Prospectus for 1874-Seventh year
THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white.

Though each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bought up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as advantages of high rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art circles of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The commonplace and "sawed" illustrations, rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic culture, and greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the best costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other mode of reproducing the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy of Design, noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest interest to the subscribers to THE ALDINE. It will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and instruction of the art.

The quarterly three parts for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos.
The original plan was to print in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars, the subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains New Hampshire the other gives the cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 10) and appearance exactly the same as the original. The representation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but beautiful happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

"NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20th, 1873.
Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.
Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs of the color of your chromos. They are exceedingly successful reproductions of the mechanical process of the original paintings.
Very respectfully,
(Signed) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American.
They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American art journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they the worst of any reason of peculiar in-felicities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to the originals. They are sold singly, and the subscription price of THE ALDINE, which persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.
If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a few subjects, they will be sent "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.
$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no retail or club rates; each subscriber's copy must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without response to the publisher's request. The entirely new and improved method of circulation where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows:

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.
It is a first rate paper for the best taste, and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.— It fights for principle, and the interests of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions which now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published.
One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discounts from this rate.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun, $2.00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 30 cents a month, or $3.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address—
